Action required	Adoption of resolution.
Draft resolution(s)	42. Assembly resolves to delete the current Appendix Y, substituting it with the text below.

Summary of content

Subject and aim(s)	To further clarify the balance between openness and transparency in the discipline process with appropriate confidentiality.
Main points	To show who needs to know details of a discipline case at its various stages throughout the process, to ensure complainants are treated as fairly as ministers, and to ensure that confidentiality is not used as a weapon to impede justice or future learning.

Appendix Y

5. If, at any point in the course of a particular case, the Executive Group of the Discipline Process, after consulting and taking advice as necessary, deem it proportionate, just, wise, and in accordance with the URC Confidentiality Policy, it may, having received safeguarding advice, allow the disclosure of information about the case.

Part two – disclosures required by law or to prevent harm

6. Information must be shared with a court or any public authority which is legally entitled to demand it, or to which there is a legal duty to report allegations. Even where there is no absolute legal duty, information may be shared with appropriate public authorities when this is required by the Church's safeguarding policy.

Part three – response to media interest

7. Enquiries by the media into any case pending under this process are to be referred to the Press Officer, who is to respond with tact and discretion, taking account issues of confidentiality, and after consulting and receiving authority from the General Secretary or a deputy whenever practicable, having regard to the interests of the Church, the minister, and all others involved in the case, and taking care in particular not to make any statement which appears to prejudge the outcome of a case still pending. The Press Officer is to seek the authority of the body with currently responsible for the stage of the case reached at that time before revealing specific information, the stage reached in the case or the identity of any complainant.
8. If the Press Officer, after consulting and authorised in accordance with paragraph 7 above, believes it will be necessary, under this provision, to release into the public domain information not previously given to the local churches served by an accused minister, they may communicate that information to the Church Secretaries, making them aware of issues of confidentiality, of those churches at the same time as (or, if possible, before) making the information public. Each notified Church Secretary is, under guidance from the Press Officer or from the Moderator of the Synod, to share the information with other members of the Elders' Meeting, who will together decide whether and when to inform the Church's wider membership.

Part four – sharing of information within and following the process

9. It is assumed that those involved in the administration or review of the process – eg the Assembly Standing Panel on Discipline, the Consultant for Ministers, the Investigation Team, the Disciplinary Investigation Panel member assisting the minister, any pastoral carer appointed to care for the minister or complainants, the Legal Advisor, the members of the Ministerial Incapacity and Discipline Advisory Group, the secretaries of the Assembly Discipline Commission and the synod or of the General Assembly, are considered entitled for this purpose. Unless otherwise stated, the specific allegations are not disclosed.

11. Notification of developments in the process is to be given, as follows.

Part five – Permanent records, monitoring continuity and review of the Process

12. A full set of papers relating to concluded cases, whether allegations were found proven or not, is to be retained in the custody of the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline. For this purpose, Moderators of Synods or the Assembly Representative for Discipline are to forward to the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline copies of papers relating to cases discontinued at the Investigation Stage or resolved by an agreed caution, and the Secretary of the Discipline Appeal Commission is to return to the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline any papers relating to cases disposed of at the Appeal Stage.
13. 'Papers' in this context may include recordings. It may also include documents held in electronic form, which are to be preserved separately through appropriate electronic media. Any hard copy material is to be kept securely in a safe or locked cabinet in the offices of the General Secretariat, to which only the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline, the Secretary of the Ministries Committee and the General Secretary have access. These officers shall also have exclusive access to the secure electronic media. An index to this material may be compiled by the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline and kept securely in his or her custody.

14. All other copies of papers generated during the Process and still existing at its conclusion in the hands of any council or officer of the Church are to be destroyed or deleted, except for material placed in the confidential files regarding individual ministers kept by the Ministries Committee or by Moderators of Synods, and for terms of cautions, directions accompanying written warnings, and Commission recommendations.
15. This does not preclude copies of the material held securely by the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline being made available for the purposes of any subsequent Process, for example cases generated by allegations against the same minister or by the same complainant.
16. Within one month of the conclusion of any case, reports to assist the General Assembly's Advisory Group on Ministerial Incapacity and Discipline, or any group or committee succeeding to its functions in keeping this Process under review, are to be prepared and transmitted to the Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline (a) by the Investigation Team and (b) by the Panel or Commission which last dealt with the case. The Secretary of the Assembly Commission for Discipline is to pass these reports on to the Secretary of the Ministerial Incapacity and Discipline Advisory Group.
17. If a minister subject to an agreed caution or to directions accompanying a written warning or curtailment undertakes a different sphere of ministry which entails transfer to the oversight of a different Synod, or from the oversight of a Synod to the direct oversight of Assembly or vice versa, it is the duty of the Moderator and Clerk of the Synod relinquishing oversight (or of the General Secretary, if the minister is passing from Assembly to Synod oversight) to transmit to the corresponding officers of the council assuming oversight the text of the caution or the monitoring notification which
